JERROLD'S LIFE OF NAPOLEON.

Just published, in 8vo, with Three Plates, price 18s.

THE LIFE OF NAPOLEON III., derived from State Records, Unpublished Family Correspondence, and Personal Testimony. By BLANCHARD JERROLD, Vol. III. The Presidency, The Coup d'Etat, The Establishment of the Empire.

"The interest of the narrative is throughout absorbing, and the family correspondence, and the personal testimony, of which Mr. Jerrold is permitted to avail himself, give to the work no slight historical importance."
John Bull.

"Mr. Jerrold's is in many respects an excellent biography. It is rich in detail, gathered from authentic sources; it is plain and straightforward, and it is sufficiently well written."
Illustrated London News.

"The materials are not newspaper gossip or the little-tattle of the back stairs, but state records, unpublished public and private correspondence, and the personal testimony of those who were most intimately associated with the Emperor in the business of his life. No thoughtful man can read this volume without the deepest interest."

—Morning Advertiser.

"Those who come without previous preparation to this record of the career of the late Emperor will be enlightened to an astonishing degree, supposing them to have retained the prejudices against him which were once so rife in this country."
—Morning Post.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—A

fluid combination for Derangement of the Liver, particularly when arising from night congestion. By gently stimulating the action of the liver and slightly moving the bowels, the heavy, drowsy feeling, with sensations of fullness, headache, pain beneath the shoulders, and other indications of Dyspepsia are removed. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is much safer than calomel or blue pill, and quite as effective for removing bile.—Prepared by J. PEPPER, 237 Tottenham Court Road, London, whose name must be on the label.—Bottles 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. each. Sold by all Chemists.

By the EARL of SOUTHESE, K.T. Extra fcap. 8vo, 7s.
"Lord Southesk has some of the qualities of a poet in a very unusual measure. He has a sense of natural beauty,

"We doubt whether in any of her previous books she has written more pleasantly than in this volume of home that she is always natural, and tells of what she sees and hears in a strange country, just as if she were quietly chatting to her friends by their own fireside."—Standard.

A DISCORD: a Story. By Aleth
WILLERSON. 1 vol. crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"Something more than ordinary praise is due to a story which has a leading idea of its own, and works it out steadily, yet without wearying the reader with excessive iteration or exaggeration..... 'A Discord' reminds us of some of Miss Sewall's best works. We should almost be disposed to give it the preference, on the ground that the human interest is broader. Sometimes we see traces of another and well-known influence. Mr. Price is a person not unworthy of the gallery of portraits which George Eliot has given to us."—Spectator.

THE HISTORY OF ROME,FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO THE PERIOD OF ITS DECLINE.

By Professor THEODOR MOMMSEN.

Translated (with the Author's sanction, and Additions) by the

With an Introduction by Dr. SCHMITZ.

In Four Vols. crown 8vo, 2l. 11s. 6d. Or, sold separately—Vols.

75s. The Index (8vo size) separately, price 3s. 6d. These volumes not sold separately.

"A work of the very highest merit; its learning is exact and profound; its narrative full of genius and skill; its descriptions of men are admirably vivid. We wish to place on record our opinion that Dr. Mommsen's is by far the best history of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Commonwealth."—Times.

"This is the best history of the Roman Republic; taking the work on the whole—the author's complete mastery of his subject, the variety of his gifts and acquirements, his graphic power in the delineation of natural and individual character, and the vivid interest which he inspires in every portion of his book, he is without an equal in his own sphere."—Edinburgh Review.

"Dr. Mommsen is the latest scholar who has acquired European distinction by writing on Roman history. But he is much more than a scholar. He is a man of genius, of great original force, and daring to the extreme in his use of it; a philosopher in his power of reproducing men; witty, with a dash of poetic fancy; and humorous, after a dry, sarcastic fashion, which, combined with his erudition, recalls Scott's Oldbuck and Bradvardine. His elaborate portraits of Caesar, in, we venture to say, one of the best pieces of biographical delineation that this century has produced. Dr. Mommsen's style of character-drawing is his own. He neither reveals a face by lightning flashes, like Mr. Carlyle, nor sets it in a framework of epigrammatic oil-lamps, like M. de Lamartine; nor dashes it off by bold crayon strokes, like Lord Macaulay. But his keen and rather naturally sarcastic genius softens in the presence of what he admires. He analyses skilfully, describes with fine pencil lines, and colours with a touch that is not too warm, and yet quite warm enough to give the hues of life."—Pall Mall Gazette.
